

CALLING

The Ologies Lesson 15

LESSON 15 - CALLING

MAIN POINT:
Message Notes: ¹
Listen to or view message #15 in The Ologies, "Calling," at pscconline.com. You can also find it by searching for Pleas Street Church of Christ on your favorite podcasting service or on the Faithlife app on Apple TV or Roku.	sant Thought Questions: 1. What does the doctrine of salvation teach us about what God is like?
2. For what crimes will God judge the world?
3. Why didn't God's call of physical Israel "stick"?
4. How does the call of God refine Israel?

Next Steps:

- 1. How will you pour out your life to model and proclaim the gospel this week?
- 2. Think about any ways that you might have been a complainer recently. Repent of this before God and anyone who might have heard you.

Obedience Challenge: Shine Like Stars

Identify a task or chore that nobody volunteers to do either at your work, civic organization, church, or home. Sign up for it and do the very best job you're able to do at it. As you do it, share fellowship with Christ who came to serve and give up his life to clean up our mess. Be sure to remain cheerful and thankful through the process and afterward.

¹ You will share your notes during the Collaboration time of your Life Team meeting.

DAILY DEVOTION GUIDE:

INTERGENERATIONAL GATHERING GUIDE:

Primer Exercise:

For Children

Play a version of "Duck, Duck, Goose." Find an open space and set up a "base" where a runner will be safe from getting tagged. Set up an area around 20 yards away where your family can sit in a circle. Make your circle large enough so that family members can't touch each other while seated. Pick the fastest person in your family to be "It."

Say: "Today, we're going to play a game called, 'Duck, Duck, Go!" (Don't tell the internet browser people I named it this or they'll sue me.). As (It's name) walks around the circle, they will touch each person's head and say, 'Duck' until they get to the person they want to run to base. When they get to that person, they'll touch their head and say, 'Go!" If you're the one who's chosen, you'll need to jump up as fast as you can and run to base before anyone else can tag you. (It's name)'s job will be to protect the person who was chosen by tagging everyone else. If you get tagged, you have to return to the circle and sit down."

The strategy of this game will become self-evident as it goes on. Depending on your family configuration, you might want to allow "It" to pick up their "Go" and run them to the base. Be careful not to fall. Allow other people to be it and play as many rounds as you like.

Afterward, ask:

- What made this game seem either fair or unfair?
- If you knew who would be chosen to Go before they were chosen, how did you know?
- In this week's lesson, we learned that God has chose us before he called us to follow him, how do you think God decided who he would choose?

Read 1 Timothy 1:12-16 and talk about the reason why God chose Paul and how those are different from what we might think.

Everyone Else

Watch this clip from the 1978 release "Superman" with Christopher Reeves. Lex over frequency causes Superman | Superman (3 Hour TV Version) - YouTube

Discuss the following:

- List some elements of the Lex Luthor's message that were targeted specifically at Super Man?
- Why did Lex Luthor contact Superman the way he did?
- What did this method of communication require of Mr. Luthor?
- How is this "calling" like God's calling of his people?
- How is it different?

The three sessions below are designed for home devotional use. Each session should be done in a separate sitting.

Session One: "The Sins of Sodom"

- Read Ezekiel 16:49-50 and Genesis 19:12-16 (If your family is unfamiliar with the story of Sodom and Gomorrah, bring them up to speed in an age-appropriate way.)
 - o For what sins did God judge Sodom?
 - O Why do you think Lots sons-in-law thought he was joking?
 - O What might have made Lot hesitate when the angels told him to leave the city?
- Application and Prayer
 - O What examples of the sins of Sodom do you see in your society or in your life?
 - o How will you flee these things?

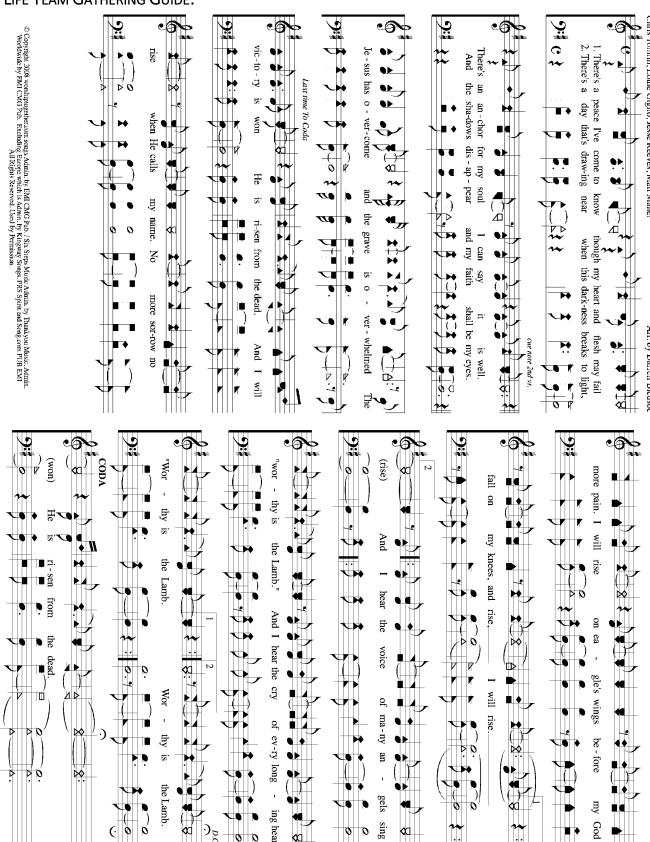

Session Two: "Chosen Son"

- Read 1 Samuel 16:1-13
 - Put the following in the order they occurred in the story of David. (Think beyond this story) David is becomes qualified to serve as Israel's King; God chooses David to be king; David is crowned; David is called to be king.
 - O Why do you think God operated this way to make David the next king?
 - O How does David's story illustrate the way God makes us his anointed heirs?
- Application and Prayer
 - o How does the knowledge that you've been chosen like David was encourage you?
 - How does it challenge you?

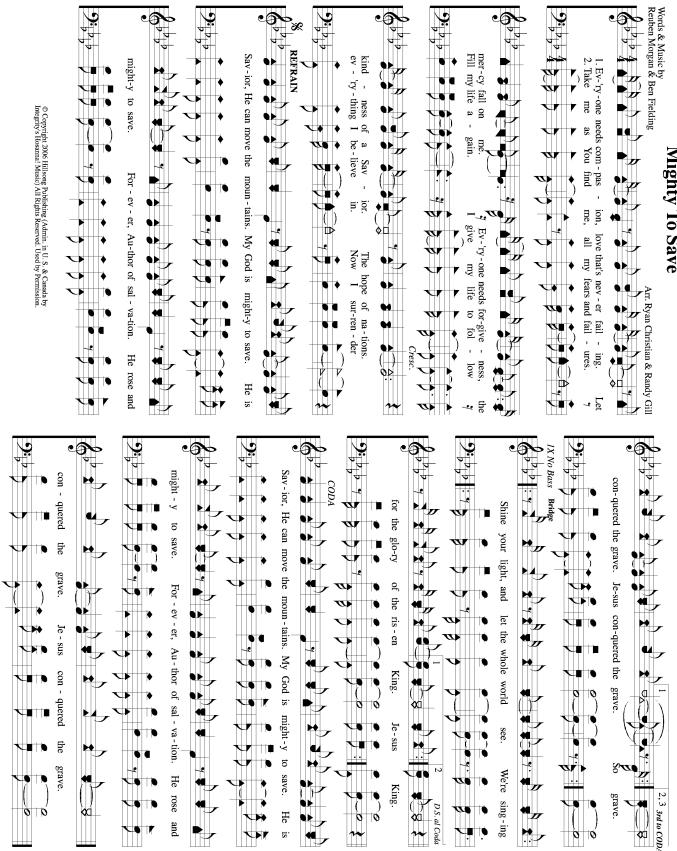

Session Three: "Ears to Hear"

- Read Luke 8:4-10
 - o How is this passage both an example and an explanation of God's choosing and calling of his people?
 - o What does the parable of the soils teach us about our role in spreading God's kingdom?
- Application and Prayer
 - O How can you be more like the sower this week?
 - O What can we pray for people with whom we share the gospel?

that you should show forth the praises of him who has called

out of darkness,

out of darkness,

out of darkness,

into his marvelous light,

into his marvelous light!

> Pray for needs and have volunteer close.
